As regards the incidence of the contributionary amount, I beg to invite attention to the last sentence of the Council Resln of 7th Nov. 1900:- "The usual exchange compensation allowances on leave and pensionary contributions will be borne by the Imperial Govt." Vide also a note at the same effect in our no 6950/1901 (P no 14). The orders to be quoted all refer to Mr. Mainwaring, not to this Officer. But what the actual Contract with Mr. Thomas is may be within the personal Cognisance of the Dewan.

The question was raised by the 2nd Comptroller on order No. 9098/1819 d. 12.12.1901. As the records stand, there is nothing to show that Govt has to pay the sum. The matter has to be decided sooner or later submitted to the Dewan

We have received two communications, one from the Madras Govt, thro' Residency, fixing the missionary contribution payable by Mr P.B. Thomas & another from the Comptroller to Govt, stating that the pensionary contribution on behalf of Mr Thomas, amounting to 50-12-10, from 11th to 31st Dec 1900, (at the rate 1/8 of Rs 600) has been paid into the Residents' receivig*.

The Madras Govt order is not very clear as to who should pay the contribution - But the Comptroller thinks N 5-1-02 to follow the precedent in Mr Swaminathan's case.
